NOTES

Tips & Resources

- ⇒ Participate in NACD Minnesota Chapter events as an educational resource and an excellent networking opportunity
- ⇒ Develop a “game plan” with target companies where your experience and background is relevant. Do research and develop a contact on the board, if possible.
- ⇒ If you are a sitting director on a nonprofit board, join NACD to take advantage of the excellent educational resources, programs such as the Director Professionalism®, Governance Fellowship program® and attend the annual Global Board Leaders’ Summit.
- ⇒ Consider the NACD Director’s Registry.
- ⇒ Attend NACD public seminars and also credible educational organizations. Again, it is an educational resource and a way to interact with the director community.
- ⇒ Research for mayoral/government appointments to committees or advisory boards..
- ⇒ Use your LinkedIn profile to become known as a thought leader and increase your networking opportunities.
- ⇒ Review the materials that will be sent to you after the event.

Additional resources will be emailed to attendees after the event.
